Zarah the Cruel is one of several novels by Joan Conquest that focus on the Arab world. This tale, set in the Arabian desert, tells of a holy man accused of murder who is forced to flee and lead a nomadic life until he can prove his innocence.

This recording is in the public domain and may be reproduced, distributed, or modified without permission. For more information or to volunteer, visit librivox.org. Cover picture by The Macaulay Company (1923). Copyright expired in U.S. Cover design by David Purdy. This design is in the public domain.